BIBLE STUDY

w/ ROCC

witness

Text

JOHN 9:1-3, 24-25

Con-Text

JOHN 8:1 - 9:41

Questions to Consider:

[1] As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth.
[2] His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

[3] "Neither this man nor his parents sinned," said Jesus, "but this happened so that the works of God might be displayed in him."

[24] "A second time they summoned the man who had been blind. "Give glory to God by telling the truth," they said. "We know this man is a sinner."

[25] He replied, "Whether he is a sinner or not, I don't know. One thing I do know. I was blind but now I see!"

+ Which character(s) in this story do you find yourself identifying with the most? Why?

+ Considering what you stand in need of most at this moment in your life, can you honestly say that you have played your part to the fullest?

+ Has there ever been something that you heard God did for someone else that you did not accept or believe because you didn't think God did those kinds of things?

ROCC'S POINTS

@jroccismajor

Every situation we find ourselves in is a chance for God's glory to shine through us.

We have a part to play in our blessing or breakthrough and we should NOT take that lightly.

There is beauty in the simplicity of our testimony.

EVERYDAY, WE SHOULD LOOK FOR THE MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S GLORY IN AND AROUND US.
